Usual lots of fun and seemingly lots of DX to work. The bit of QRN made things harder at times to complete with some, but EU was in all the time I was on!

Because there's no "specific rule" for this contest, I think there are a few that think that the DX window (Stew's invention I believe) doesn't exist. I believe it would be too bad if this gains momentum as more and more US stations get on 160 and call CQ for 14 hours - OR - did I not get the memo?
